

Detrick Family Chiropractic complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex. Detrick Family Chiropractic does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Detrick Family Chiropractic will make all reasonable efforts to accommodate people with disabilities or with communication challenges within reason and that do not burden the corporation with unreasonable costs as compared to what can be expected as a return for offering such services.

If anyone is in need of such services, a request can be made directly to the doctor or to the front desk personnel.

If anyone believes that Detrick Family Chiropractic has failed to provide these services or has been discriminated against in any way based upon race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, a grievance may be filed directly to Dr. Robert Detrick (owner) either in writing or in person.

You may also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
